

Cynthia C. Allner

Principal

callner@milesstockbridge.com

410 385-3683

Education

Wake Forest University School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 1982)

Duke University
(B.A., cum laude, 1979)

Bar Admissions

Virginia, 2021

District of Columbia, 2013

Maryland, 1982

Cynthia C. Allner concentrates on the representation of financial institutions and borrowers in matters such as asset-based finance, public finance, aircraft and project finance, and trade finance.

She also represents clients in letters of credit and bank guarantees, cross-border acquisition financings, multi-national finance, and tax-effective and foreign exchange driven transactions.

She is experienced in the field of public finance, principally representing underwriters in hospital, health care, continuing care retirement community and university, secondary school and charter school financings and banks purchasing bonds for the benefit of non-profit corporations and associations.

Cindy has deep experience in asset-based finance with specialized knowledge of multi-national transactions.

She has extensive involvement with the government-subsidized finance programs offered by the Export-Import Bank of the United States, foreign, federal and state government agencies and other finance and investment-related agencies of the federal and state governments.

Cindy also represents many of the firm's business clients, both publicly traded and privately owned, on corporate finance and event-driven transactions.

Cindy is a former member of the Firm's Board of Directors and former Chair of the Firm's Business Department. She served a 6-year term on the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Baltimore Branch, serving as Chairman for two years.

Cindy served as co-chairman of the Finance and Banking Practice Group of TerraLex International Legal Network and was a member of the organization's Board of Directors for 15 years.