For more than two decades, Don Meringer has represented clients on a wide range of products liability and commercial litigation matters, at both the trial and appellate levels.

His practice spans asbestos litigation, claims involving equipment and machinery, fire and property damage subrogation matters, pharmaceutical litigation, commercial lease disputes, professional malpractice actions and a variety of commercial and contract disputes.

Don has significant experience defending asbestos-related claims. He has served as local, regional and national counsel in asbestos personal injury cases for more than a dozen asbestos product manufacturers, installers and equipment manufacturers in multiple jurisdictions. He also acted as counsel for defendants in two of the largest consolidated trials in Maryland history.

Most recently, Don was senior partner at the Baltimore law firm of Meringer, Zois & Quigg, LLC. Prior to that, he was the managing partner of the Baltimore office of McCarter & English, LLP.

An honors graduate of the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, Don earned his bachelor's degree from Washington University in St. Louis. He is a member of the board of trustees of the Theta Xi Foundation.
