Jeffrey D. Renner represents clients in estate planning and probate matters.

In addition to basic estate planning services, Jeff concentrates his practice on gift, estate, generation-skipping transfer and income tax planning; business succession planning; asset protection planning; and trust and estate administration. To help individuals and families achieve their planning and tax minimization goals, Jeff prepares a variety of estate and tax planning vehicles (including wills, revocable trusts, various types of irrevocable trusts, charitable trusts, durable general powers of attorney, advance directives for health care, limited liability companies, and private foundations).
