Scott Wilson is Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Miles & Stockbridge, leading the 200-plus-lawyer firm and serving as the steward of its vision and core strategies.

A principal in the firm's Corporate & Securities practice, Scott advises public and private companies, private equity sponsors and institutional investors on middle-market mergers and acquisitions, securities transactions, private fund formation and special situations.

Scott regularly advises on corporate governance issues and counsels public companies on novel issues, including those pertaining to Maryland corporate law and Maryland REIT law, the legal duties owed by officers, directors and trustees attendant to strategic transactions and other significant decisions. He frequently serves as special Maryland counsel, counsel to special committees or counsel to event-driven demand committees of Maryland corporations.

As both Chairman and a working principal at the firm, Scott frequently collaborates with other Miles & Stockbridge lawyers who have deep experience in complementary legal disciplines. He works tirelessly to bring together lawyers from diverse practices and backgrounds to develop the sort of deep understanding of our clients and their businesses that helps serve their broader needs more effectively and efficiently.

He previously led the firm's Corporate & Securities practice for nearly a decade, overseeing its expansion across markets and strengthening its position in complex middle-market transactions.

Scott is nationally ranked by Chambers USA as a leading lawyer in REITs: Maryland Counsel and in Maryland for Corporate/Mergers and Acquisitions.

Scott is a past chair of the Business Law Section of the Maryland State Bar Association and currently serves as the vice chair of the Committee on Corporation Law of the section.
