Trey Hilberg represents businesses and their owners in every phase of a company's life cycle.

Trey advises clients in entity formation and restructuring, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, equity and debt financings, and other general securities and governance matters, as well as the negotiation and drafting of shareholder agreements, operating agreements, and other commercial contracts.

He also regularly assists companies on matters of Maryland business entity law, especially as it relates to REITs, registered investment companies, and business development companies.

Immediately after law school, Trey served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Kathleen G. Cox, Administrative Judge for the Baltimore County Circuit Court. During law school, he was a member of the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission Honors Program.

Trey is heavily involved with the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, serving as a board member of its Maryland Chapter and the advocacy chair for its Mid-Atlantic Region.
