Angela London represents businesses and individuals in a broad range of commercial and business disputes in federal and state courts.

She handles arbitration cases, complex contractual disputes and business torts, as well as matters related to breach of contract, fraud, unfair competition and other business disputes.

Prior to joining Miles & Stockbridge, Angela practiced civil insurance defense and represented clients in a variety of complex litigation matters, including construction litigation, commercial premises liability and defamation claims. She also advised insurance carriers on issues of insurance law, coverage and insurance fraud investigations.

Following her graduation from law school, she served as a law clerk to Judge Steven S. Smith of Prince William County Circuit Court.
