

Travis J. Shafer

Principal

tshafer@milesstockbridge.com

202 293-8236

Education

The George Washington University
Law School (J.D., 2014)

- Editor-in-Chief, The Federal Circuit Bar Journal

The University of Oxford
International Human Rights Law
Summer Programme (2012)

George Fox University (B.A.,
magna cum laude, Steinfeldt Peace Studies Scholar, 2006)

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia, 2017

New York, 2016

Travis Shafer represents mortgage lenders in the origination, sale and servicing of loans.

Travis's practice focuses primarily on loans that will be purchased by Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac. His expertise encompasses both market rate and affordable transactions, including finance assumptions, funded and unfunded forward commitments, low-income housing tax credit projects, historic tax credit projects, bond financing, subordinate financing, ground lease and lease-back structures, tax exemptions, rehabilitation projects and master lease transactions structured for Delaware Statutory Trust borrowers.

He previously served as an intern with the Supreme Court of Delaware and has acted for mortgage lenders as a law clerk and project manager on multifamily transactions.

Prior to joining Krooth & Altman LLP in 2015, Travis served as an Intern with the Supreme Court of Delaware. Travis began acting for mortgage lenders as a Law Clerk and Project Manager on multifamily transactions in 2012.