

2026 TerraLex Global Meeting

Edinburgh, Scotland | April 29 – May 2

Miles & Stockbridge enhances client value through deliberate, strategic partnerships—creating new opportunities for collaboration with our fellow TerraLex member firms. Our merger with Krooth & Altman in 2025 has strengthened our capabilities with the addition of a nationally recognized real estate finance team experienced in affordable and multifamily housing. Expansion into New York, continued growth in Richmond, Virginia, and the opening of a new Washington, D.C. metro-area office further reinforce our ability to serve clients across key U.S. markets.

In February, longtime M&S corporate lawyer Scott Wilson was elected Chairman, succeeding Nancy Greene, who now serves as Chairman Emeritus. With more than 200 lawyers across Maryland, Washington, D.C., Virginia and New York, we stand ready to support your clients' U.S. legal needs.

Adding Value to the TerraLex Community

- International Trade
- Consumer Product Safety Commission
- Government Contracts
- Global Investigations and White Collar
- Global Family Law and Child Custody
- Real Estate Finance
- Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and HUD
- Affordable and Multifamily Housing
- REITs: Maryland Counsel
- Health Care
- Middle Market M&A and Private Equity
- Bankruptcy and Creditors Rights
- Antitrust/Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR)
- Environmental and Land Use
- Data Centers

For more information, please visit our website and TerraLex page.

John Badman IV

Principal | Corporate

jbadman@milesstockbridge.com

+1 804 915-1908

John is managing principal of the firm's Richmond, Virginia, office. He represents middle market private equity sponsors with the acquisition financing and refinancing of their portfolio companies. He advises across the spectrum of traditional sponsors, independent sponsors and search funds. Although his clients are usually industry agnostic, John has extensive experience with government contracts clients, health care, retail, distribution and hospitality services.

Emily A. Higgs

Principal | Corporate

ehiggs@milesstockbridge.com

+1 410 385-3659

Emily has built a diverse practice representing public and private companies and investors in a variety of corporate and securities matters. Her transactional practice includes domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, securities compliance, corporate governance and complex commercial arrangements. Emily frequently represents private equity funds and their portfolio companies. She also serves as local counsel, advising companies and boards of directors with respect to Maryland corporate laws.

Brian G. Filler

Principal | Corporate

bfiller@milesstockbridge.com

+1 202 465-8384

Brian represents clients in commercial and antitrust matters. He guides clients through the regulatory review process before the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, managing premerger notification from filing strategy through Second Request compliance and agency negotiations. He counsels boards, senior leadership and legal teams on antitrust risk assessment, deal timing and regulatory strategy to align transactions with the antitrust landscape.